

Burlington Ubuntu Grandwomen

Join us for some fun Workshops

Date Saturday March 17, 2012

Location Burlington Baptist Church, 2225 New St, Burlington

"Dare to Tap"

with Rosemary Maurice from the Burlington Footnotes

$10.00

09.00 –10.00

Paint Ukrainian Easter Eggs

with Kjt Gagnon

$30.00

10.30 –12.30 or 13.30—15.30

Knit a Fancy Scarf

with Marg Warriner

$25.00

10.30 –12.30 or 13.30—15.30

Create your own Greeting Cards

with Lynne McCutcheon

$20.00

10.30 –12.30 or 13.30—15.30

Workshops are priced individually based on the cost of materials. All supplies and instructions will be provided. Workshops (other than Dare to Tap) will be held both in the morning and the afternoon.

"Dare to Tap" tap, stomp and step out to the beat of "African Drumming" while unleashing the rhythm inside you. Simple movements done to basic rhythms will make for a fun filled class that is open to all levels of ability. No experience required.

Coffee & refreshments available. Bring your own lunch if attending for the day.

A Fund Raising Event for the Burlington Ubuntu Grandwomen. All proceeds go directly to the Stephen Lewis Foundation

Easing the pain of HIV/AIDS in Africa

For more information or to register contact Emilee Shaw 905-635-9191 or emilee.shaw@cogeco.ca